

2025 League Coverage

Comprehensive Sports Data Solutions

Diverse Coverage Across Domestic + Global Sporting Leagues

SportsDataIO's coverage matrix showcases our extensive data capture across major sports leagues around the globe, providing accessibility to real-time, accurate, and reliable data.

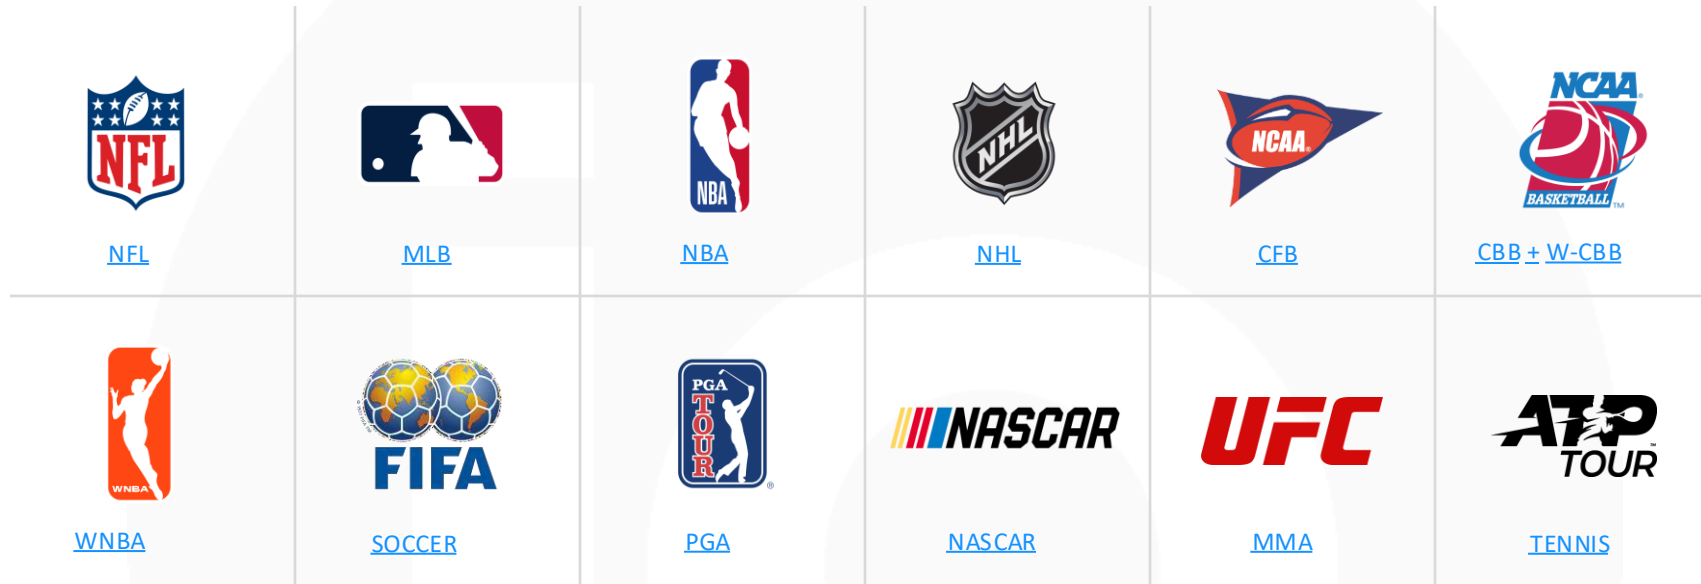

Expansive Data Feeds

- Competition Feeds: League-wide coverage beyond the event including a full list of teams, players, rosters, all stadiums, and game officials; along with standings, rankings, and brackets.
- Event Feeds: Our event feeds incorporate league schedules, scores, team & player stats, and our play-by-play feeds. They are available for delivery after the conclusion of an event (final only) or in real-time as the action on the field takes place (live & final only).
- Player Feeds: Real-time coverage of all player activity including team depth charts, lineups (projected + confirmed) and injury reports tracked 24/7/365.
- Betting Feeds: Game lines (pre-game and in-play), props, and futures are available via our Aggregated Odds Service including options to track line movement and built-in resulting. Additionally, feeds for predictions and best bets, matchups, trends, & splits.
- Fantasy Feeds: A range of projection options (full season, weekly/daily, and IDP) along with DFS salaries & slates, and fantasy points earned. With BAKER Prediction Engine, its advanced query API enables partners to have full access to build custom question sets to populate any the probability of any fantasy outcome.
- News & Images: Headshots and action shots available for editorial use along with a range of editorial options produced by human editors and/or as AI-generated text; previews, breaking news, and short-form infotainment blurbs.
